In this town on Sunday evening last, by the Rev. Mr. Marshall, Mr. EDWARD BOWNE to Mrs. Effie M'QUEEN. On the 1st ult., by the Rev. E. Fant, the Rev. Nichoras Roberts, pastor of Red Hill Church, aged 89 years, to Mrs. MARY Rop-GERS, all of Fairfield district.

DIED,

In this town on Saturday last Augustus, only son of Augustus P. Lacoste, aged four years.

At her father's residence in Marlborough District on the morning of the 26th ult. after an illness of 12 days, Miss KATHARINE McRAE, daughter of the Rev. Charles McRae in the 35th year

This young and interesting lady has gone down to an early grave, amid the tears and sympathies of a large circle of relatives and friends, to whom she had endeared herself by the many excellent qualities of her heart. Amiable and sweet tempered, she entertained feelings of kinkness towards all, of ill will toward none. Lively of disposition and of great artlessness and simplicity of Islands 9½; St. Croix, 9 a 10; New Orleans, 19 a character, she diffused cheerfulness around her and displayed in her intercourse with others the beauty of a mind divested of all malice innocent of unfriendly sentiments, anxious to please and un- Manilla, brown, 8 a 81; Lump, 131 a 141; Loaf suspicious of injury. The offences of others sho sustained with meekness; while it is not known that she ever willingly gave offence herself, or departed from the mildness and gentleness by which her nature was distinguished. Greatly beloved by her parents and other relations to whom she was a comfort and a blessing, she returned their affection with the utmost sincerity and warmth, and indeed in nothing did she discover her loveliness more than in the strength and depth of her attachments and in her desire to contribute to the happiness of those to whom she was united by the ties of relationship. With such virtues we need not add that she discharged the duties of daughter and sister with a fidelity which was worthy of all praise and the remembrance of which makes her removal from the sphere of those duties a bitter augmentation of the affliction to the survivors for whom they were The death of such an one in the prime of life and career of usefulness is indeed a mysterious (though doubtless a wise) dispensation of providence. It is nevertheles a most melancholy visitation and adds another to the many affecting instances already on record of the instability of human felicity-the uncertainty of human prospects. Young in years-amiable and buoyant in spirits-in the enjoyment generally of good health, surrounded with circumstances of prosperity, living in the best affections of her friends and with the anticipation of days and years to come of happiness and joy, the deceased was suddenly arrested by disease and after a brief space of suffering, consigned to the dark gloom and dreary silence of the tomb. But such has been the will of God. Let this reflection incite those who have been called to mourning by this painful event to submission, and let their consolation be that the patience and trust in God and pious frame of mind which the departed object of their love displayed throughout her illness, afford them much reason not for her to be "sorry, as those COMMUNICATED. without hope."

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 22-Cotton.-We have again experienced a very general and extensive demand the sales of the week amounting to 37,590 bales, at an advance of } per lb. on inferior to fair American, and &d on Pernambuco; for other kinds the extreme rates of last week have been realized.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 23 .- Cotton .- The sales to day, are 5,000 bales at yesterday's prices.

Extract of a letter dated, Lixerpool, August 23.

An extensive demand for Cotton has prevailed since our last, and the traders have again taken a large supply while holders have shown a ready disposition to meet the enquiry; prices generally are about } per lb. higher, middling to fair qualities of American have been monst in request.

Flour .- Early in the week the market for Western was excessively heavy, and sales of common brands were with difficulty effected at $6 75 but towards the close the demand revived, and $9 was easily obtained for the same description, and for fancy $9 50. Allthe Troy in market was purchased on Thursday at 8 75, and is now firmly held for an advance.

Grain.-There has been a decline in the prices of Northern and Western Wheat, although the recipts have not been large. The parcel of North Carolina new, mentioned in our last, has been sold during the week at 1 55; the quality quite infe-

26,000 SUBSCRIBERS! Philadelphia Mirror.

HE splended patronage awarded to the phil A adelphia Saturday Courier, induces the editors to commence the publication, under the above title, of a quarto edition of their popular ournal, so long known as the largest Family Newspaper in the United States with a list of near TWENTY.SIX THOUSAND SUB-SCRIBERS. The new feature recently introduced of furnishing their readers with new books of the best literature of the day, having proved so eminently successful, the plan will be continued. Six volumes of the celebrated writings of Captain Marryatt, and sixty-five of Mr. Brook's valuable Letters from Europe, have already been published without interfering with it's news and miscellaneous reading. The Courier is the largest and cheapest family newspaper ever issued in this country, containing articles in Literature Science, and Arts; Internal Improvement; Agriculture; in short every variety of topics usually introduced into a public journal. Giving full accounts of sales, markets, and news of the latest

It is published at the low price of $2. For this small sum subscribers get valuable and entertaining matter each week enough to fill a common book of 200 pages, and equal to 52 volumes year, and which is estimated to be read, weekly by at least two hundred thousand people, scattered in all parts of the country, from Maine to Florida, and from the sea board to the lakes .-The paper has been now so long established as to render it too well known to require an extended prospectus, the publishers, therefore, will do no more than refer to the two leading daily political papers of opposite politics The Pennsylvanian says—"The Saturday Courier is the largest, and one of the best family newspapers in the Union;"the other, the Inquirer and Daily Courier, says, "It is the largest journal published in Philadelphia, and one of the very best in the United States." The New York Star says-we know nothing more liberal on the part of the dormant talents of our country, than their unexampled liberality in offering literary prizes."

The Albeny Mercury of March 16th, 1836 says, "the Saturday Courier. is decidedly the best Family Newspaper ever published in this or any other country, and its value is duly appreciated by the public, if we may judge Its contents are agreeably varied, and each number contains more really valuable 'reading matter' than is published in a week in any daily paper in the Union. Its mammoth dimensions enable its enterprising proprietors, Messrs. Woodward & Clarke, of Philadelphia, to re-publish in its columes in the course of a year, several of the most interesting new works that issue from the British press; which cannot fail to give to it a permanent interest and render it worthy of preservation. To meet the wishes, therefore, of such of their subscribers as desire to have their numbers bound, they have de termined on issuing an edition of the Courier in the quarto form, which will render it much more convenient for reading when it is bound in a volume and thus greatly enhance its value."

THE QUARTO EDITION. Under the title of the PHILADELPHIA MIRROR, will commence with the publication of the Prize Tale, to which was awarded the prize of $100, written by Miss Leslie, editor of the splended Annual the Token, and author of Pencil Sketches and other valuable contributions to American Literature, A large number of songs poems tales, &c. offered in competition for the $500 premiums, will add value and interest to the succeeding numbers, which will also be enriched by a story from Miss Sedgewick author of Hope Leslie. The Linwoods, &c., whose talents have been so justly and extensively appreciated, both and the uncompromising opponent of quaker of every kind.

MAPS. In addition to all of which the publishers intend furnishing their patrons with a series of engraved Maps, embraceing the twenty-five States of the Union, &c. exhibiting the situation, &c. of rivers, towns, mountains, lakes, the sea board internal improvements, as displayed in cannals, rail roads, &c., with other interesting and useful features, roads distances, &c. forming a complete Atlas for general use and information, handsomely executed, each distinct map on a large quarto sheet, at an expense which nothing but the splendid patronage which for six years past warrent. The Philadelphia Saturday Courier is still continued in its large form at the same price as heretofore. The Philadelphia Mirror, being a quarto edition of the Saturday Courier, with its increased attractions, and printed on the best fine white paper of the same size as the New York Albion, will be put at precisely one half the price of that valuable journal, viz, Three Dollars per annum payable in advance (including the Maps.)
